Hi [REDACTED]

b6 -2

I am closing in on the end of my thesis.....YEAAHHHH!

Anyway, I would like to start sending you some of the chapters that are ready for your review. What is the best e-mail for me to use to send it to you? I can't use FBINET so I assume that you have a UNET account?

Also, I will forward to you e-mails from FBI personnel I interviewed with their approval to be in the thesis along with approval from their division heads etc.

Thanks

Hello [REDACTED]

b6 -2

The Prepublication Review is 30 days from receipt of your paper, unless it has to be reviewed by any other division or agency. You can submit your paper all at once or when you get a chapter done. Give yourself plenty of time, if you can. We do are best to get these done in a timely manner, so you can graduate on time. I see by some of your previous emails that you are interviewing different people. Anyone above an ASAC is releasable, without their written permission. If they are below an ASAC, please get their permission. We do not have a standard form for permission. It can be just a blurb saying they give you permission to use their name in your thesis and they sign and date it.

I hope this helps. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thank you

Hi [REDACTED]

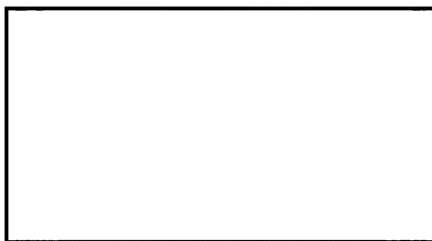

b6 -2

[REDACTED] from OPA recommend I contact you regarding a master's thesis I am working on. The details are contained in the below e-mail string but in a nutshell the program I am in is sponsored and paid for by the FBI via the Training Division. We have a number of other FBI folks who are in the same program but just in different cohorts many who have already graduated. I will graduating next March. I would assume that this may be something you have dealt with frequently and you provide guidance regarding any issues on the publication of the thesis?

Just so you know, the thesis will be unclassified and I have copied [REDACTED] who is in my cohort.

Thanks

No approvals needed from OPA for the interviews in this case. But your interviewees should ensure they have approval to participate from their respective division heads--not a problem for Art, Mike and Jim... they can generally decide on their own if they want to participate or not. But [REDACTED] should get approval from their management. I don't envision it being an issue.

When you finish your thesis, however, you will need Prepublication Approval from RMD... contact [REDACTED] at 540-868-1697. I would contact her earlier rather than later since you will be working on academic deadlines.

On a similar matter I am working on a Masters Thesis at the Center for Homeland Defense and Security through the Naval Postgraduate School. It is one of the FBI funded and supported masters programs. I, and other FBI personnel, are in each cohort. I am in the process of setting up interviews with folks I need to speak with regarding my thesis research. My question is who/how/what needs to be done in order for these people to be "officially" interviewed for my project. The thesis will be unclassified and will be published but obviously in academic and professional circles.

I am returning to DC in August to [REDACTED] but I am also setting up interviews while I am in town. I currently have interviews set up with EAD Art Cummings and AD Mike Hiembach. I am also looking to interview DAD McJunkin and I would like to formally interview [REDACTED]

b6 -2

See the below guidance from OPA regarding my thesis work and the approval you will need in regards to being "Officially" interviewed by me for this project. Bottom line it looks like you need nothing more than SAC approval which may even be delegated down to the ASAC. I think if you explain the nature of the thesis, the fact it is an FBI master's program and that the EAD, AD and DAD are all already scheduled for interviews in Aug it should not be an issue.

Once I get the green light from the IRB I will forward to each of you the consent forms and the questions which would probably be the right time to take it in to the SAC though I guess letting him know ahead of time would not hurt.

Do you believe it would be easier if I reached out to them to let them know I want to interview each of you or do you think it is better for you to handle it?

Thanks again guys for all your help with this.....I will owe you each [REDACTED]

b6 -2

I understand you guys are getting smacked with a bad snow storm. Sounds like a great chance to make some hot tea and read a thesis. I am sure everything in DC was shut down 3 days ago just thinking about the storm. Well, in order to help you pass the time and perhaps help you sleep here are the last two chapters of my thesis. I have also enclosed an updated bibliography.

BTW...in working with my thesis advisor and the folks at the Naval Postgraduate School, we decided that we were going to have this thesis start out as a "Limited Distribution" and not a general unrestricted publication due to the recent nature of the events and subject matter. They wanted me to convey that to you as it is reviewed.

Please give me a heads up when you think it may be ready since I still have to get it to my editor/formatter and have it go before the committee.

Thanks and stay warm.

Dear [REDACTED]

b6 -2

The Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) received your submission on January 20, 2010, requesting prepublication review of Chapters 1 through 4 and the Bibliography of your thesis.

The FBI's prepublication review policy provided for a review period of thirty business days not counting the day of receipt. This review period can be extended depending upon the complexity of the materials being reviewed, but in most cases the reviews are completed within the thirty business day period. A review of your submission is in progress and we will advise of the results upon completion.

Should you have any questions, please contact [REDACTED] at 540-868-1697. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

b6 -2

Sincerely,

David M. Hardy [REDACTED]

b6 -2

Here are my first four chapters of my thesis. I am still working on chapters 5 & 6 with my thesis advisor and my second reader [REDACTED] is from [REDACTED] so he is also going through it as well. I have also included the bibliography so you can check the citations in each chapter if you need to.

If you have any questions please let me know.

Thanks

Hi [REDACTED]

b6 -2

I just wanted to pass on to you the below e-mail regarding deadlines for me to submit my thesis in time for graduation. I am planning on submitting my thesis to an editor/formatter (option 3) so according to what I was sent below I need to get it in NLT 12 March.

I know you indicated a rough 30 day time frame for review and I just sent you my last two chapters before the snow storm which I am sure is making things a mess back there but if there is anything I can do to help with the process please let me know.

Also, I have the signed consent & waiver forms from all the folks that I interviewed (including EAD Cummings, AD McJunkin, ADM Maguire etc) in relation to my thesis so if sending you those signed forms will help you in any way with the process I can scan those and e-mail them to you.

Thanks for your help on this and hopefully you find this thesis not too boring.

All,

Per the Thesis Processing office, in order to make March graduation, your thesis must be submitted to [] office for first look NLT 19 MARCH.

What this means:

b6 -1

1. If you are editing and formatting your own thesis, or using your own people for it, you must submit it to [] directly by 19 March. []
2. If you are editing yourself but hiring a formatter, you must get your final draft to your formatter NLT 15 MARCH.
3. If you are hiring an editor AND formatter, you must submit your final draft to your editor/formatter NLT 12 MARCH.

Editors may refuse to accept documents turned into them later than the March 12 and 15 dates; the thesis office will process any document turned in after 19 March for June graduation.

Thanks.

See the below guidance from OPA regarding my thesis work and the approval you will need in regards to being "Officially" interviewed by me for this project. Bottom line it looks like you need nothing more than SAC approval which may even be delegated down to the ASAC. I think if you explain the nature of the thesis, the fact it is an FBI master's program and that the EAD, AD and DAD are all already scheduled for interviews in Aug it should not be an issue.

Once I get the green light from the IRB I will forward to each of you the consent forms and the questions which would probably be the right time to take it in to the SAC though I guess letting him know ahead of time would not hurt.

Do you believe it would be easier if I reached out to them to let them know I want to interview each of you or do you think it is better for you to handle it?

Thanks again guys for all your help with this.....I will owe you each [redacted]

No approvals needed from OPA for the interviews in this case. But your interviewees should ensure they have approval to participate from their respective division heads--not a problem for Art, Mike and Jim... they can generally decide on their own if they want to participate or not. But [redacted] should get approval from their management. I don't envision it being an issue.

On a similar matter I am working on a Masters Thesis at the Center for Homeland Defense and Security through the Naval Postgraduate School. It is one of the FBI funded and supported masters programs. I, and other FBI personnel, are in each cohort. I am in the process of setting up interviews with folks I need to speak with regarding my thesis research. My question is who/how/what needs to be done in order for these people to be "officially" interviewed for my project. The thesis will be unclassified and will be published but obviously in academic and professional circles.

Hi [REDACTED]

b6 -3

Excellent feedback, thank you for your help. At some point can you sign and return the consent form so that I can attribute it to you and not get raked over the coals by the IRB?

Its just regular postage to me at:

[REDACTED] b6 -2

or you can scan a signed copy and just email it back to me.

Again thanks for your help and try and get some sleep. I am keeping up with everything going on back there since I am [REDACTED] and yes it has been busier than I can ever remember to include [REDACTED]

Hi [REDACTED]

b6 -3

I'm sorry I missed you while I was in DC in early August. I have completed writing my case study analysis concerning [REDACTED]. From the conversation we had back in March, there is a comment I would like to attribute to you. It is as follows:

b6 -1,-3
b7E -3,-6

[REDACTED]

Would you be OK with me mentioning this and adding to the bibliography? I can send you the whole piece if you like but I will need your consent to attribute it.

Thanks

That is AWESOME! Thanks so much for your help. Can you scan and e-mail me a copy I can forward to NPS?
The best address to send me the original is:

[REDACTED] b6 -2

That will come straight to me at [REDACTED] but does not require any extra postage.

b6 -2

Again thanks for your help.....you have made my weekend.

Hi [REDACTED]

b6 -2

Will do. I have some electronically and will send those today. The one I have in hard copy I will scan and email to you early next week. I will also forward to you on FBI.net the email responses from guys like [REDACTED] that they got authorization from their SAC to be interviewed.

b6 -2

Thanks for your help on this.

Dear [REDACTED]

b6 -2

The Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) received your submission on February 17, 2010, requesting prepublication review of Chapters 5 & 6 and the final Bibliography of your thesis.

The FBI's prepublication review policy provided for a review period of thirty business days not counting the day of receipt. This review period can be extended depending upon the complexity of the materials being reviewed, but in most cases the reviews are completed within the thirty business day period. A review of your submission is in progress and we will advise of the results upon completion.

Should you have any questions, please contact [REDACTED] at 540-868-1697. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

b6 -2

Sincerely,
 David M. Hardy [REDACTED]

P.S. Yes, we had about 30 inches or more out of the 2 storms last week. You know this area has issues when it is dry, let alone a little snow...will it was something with all of this. I haven't seen this kind of snow since I was younger and lived in [REDACTED] I received your deadline email and I will do my best to get it done by then. Yes, would you please send me the signed consent & waiver forms? Have a great day!

Hi [REDACTED]

b6 -2

I understand you guys are getting smacked with a bad snow storm. Sounds like a great chance to make some hot tea and read a thesis. I am sure everything in DC was shut down 3 days ago just thinking about the storm. Well, in order to help you pass the time and perhaps help you sleep here are the last two chapters of my thesis. I have also enclosed an updated bibliography.

BTW...in working with my thesis advisor and the folks at the Naval Postgraduate School, we decided that we were going to have this thesis start out as a "Limited Distribution" and not a general unrestricted publication due to the recent nature of the events and subject matter. They wanted me to convey that to you as it is reviewed.

Please give me a heads up when you think it may be ready since I still have to get it to my editor/formatter and have it go before the committee.

Thanks and stay warm.

b6 -2

Here are my first four chapters of my thesis. I am still working on chapters 5 & 6 with my thesis advisor and my second reader [redacted] is from [redacted] so he is also going through it as well. I have also included the bibliography so you can check the citations in each chapter if you need to.

If you have any questions please let me know.

Thanks
